

From the Bristol Press, Bristol, CT, November, 1899:

Charles Merriam, a brother-in-law of Noble E. Pierce, is a guest at the home of the latter, and will remain until after the marriage of his sister, Miss Mary Terry Merriam, to Mr. Leon M. Case, next Wednesday evening. Mr. Merriam is the superintendant in charge of mines in Nova Scotia, that are run only through the summer. Mr. Merriam's home is in East St. Louis, where he spends his winters and where he will go after the wedding.
